Headline:

Dry with some warm sunny spells.

Today:

Any overnight low cloud and mist soon clearing to leave a bright morning with good spells of sunshine. Cloud bubbles up for the afternoon but it should stay dry and it will feel warm in the sunshine with light winds. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Tonight:

A dry evening with some late sunny spells. Cloud is expected to increase overnight with a risk of the odd light shower in east towards the end of the night. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Friday:

A rather cloudy start with the odd shower in the east. However some sunny spells develop through the morning but showers are expected to become more widespread in the afternoon. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:

Unsettled through the weekend and Monday with showers or longer spells of rain, heavy and perhaps thundery at times. Still feeling warm in any sunshine with mainly light winds.
